Shane Hughes
Chef Patron

"For me, great food is about balance—flavour, technique, and a touch of creativity. At The Toll Bridge, we focus on quality ingredients and thoughtful execution to create dishes that feel both refined and inviting. It's about making every plate something worth remembering, whether it's a beautifully cooked piece of wild fish or a dish that brings a fresh twist to a classic.

Food should be an experience—one that's comforting, exciting, and, most importantly, enjoyed in good company." – Shane Hughes
